Read the Newspaper

Choose one article from a newspaper or news website, for example simpleenglishnews.com

What is the title of the article you read?

What kind of article was it? (opinion, news, interview, etc.)

What kinds of people do you think would be interested in this article?

What are some words you learned from it?

Summarize the article in a few sentences. Are there any points you disagree with? Are there any points you want to read more about?

Write example sentences using the words you learned from the article.