

This is not a book report

Where did you read the book?

Does the cover give a good idea of what is inside the book? Why?

Think of a new title for the book.

Draw a scene from the book.

What is your favorite sentence in the book?

What other kind of book might contain a sentence like this?

Change or add one word to make the sentence funnier.

How many times did you:

Use a dictionary to look up a word from the book?

Stand up while still reading the book?

Answer a question from a family member while still reading the book?

Go back a page or two to re-read something?

Think, "that's a funny name"?